

Michael Broadbent of Christies - Decanter (June 2011) describes lunch at his local, The Crabtree "... to accompany my favourite Yorkshire rhubarb crumble, the enterprising waitress recommended a Monbazillac from Domaine de l'Ancienne Cure. Though listed only in 375ml bottles, she gave me a glass to try. Once again, delicious: starbright, surprisingly pale but with a rich fragrant, enticing scent; sweet but light in style, and not remotely cloying, as it had perfect acidity. I gave it four stars.
