Dr Plonk 5th June 2012

Chateau Lagarde 2012

“This St Emilion wine is predominantly Merlot and Cabernet Franc. The colour is a deep red with youngish purple hues. The nose is classic earthy cassis notes lifting with vanilla and hints of cigar box. The palate is a lively cheery one with loads of young tannins that leaves that lip smacking effect. Superb with Osso bucco as the acid and tannin balance the tangy sauce.”
